

Title: Co-Creating a Borderless World

Nationality, religion, gender, generation, occupation etc. Why do the “boundaries” exist in our daily lives and why do they create polarization? Ms. HIRAHARA claims that boundaries cannot be eliminated, but they can be dissolved. She built a start-up company that develops educational business with “creating a borderless world” as its purpose. In this event, Ms. HIRAHARA will talk about the world in which the “individuality” of all people living on this earth can flourish by dissolving boundaries through “dialogue,” rather than by seeking the correct answer on a “yes or no” basis or by denying conflicting ideas.
